

Art & Photography along

The Old Rd

These pages will soon feature links to fine artists and photographers who add their vision to retro-touring experiences along Route 66 and the Pacific Coast. Here are a few.

Melinda Cowdery has created a superb series of themed prints featuring classic Indian and Harley-Davidson motorcycles against landmarks and icons of Route 66. Her images are available at modest prices as 19"x25" posters and 5"x7" prints. Check out her prints at www.hdart.com.

Mary Titus is a well-recognized Carmel painter and wildlife photographer whose client list ranges from private collectors to some of California's largest wineries. Working with bold, yet delicate colors, Mary's visions of the California coast are available as original art, prints, and posters. Visit her studio page: www.marytitusart.com.

Tom Snyder has been making photographs of Route 66 and other American two-lane highways since the early 1960s. A series of signed prints, both large and small, representing his work on Route 66 and Pacific Coast Highway, will soon be available at modest cost. The series will include, “Funks Grove” and “Oregon Cloudfalls,” below.
